

Outstanding wines from a unique cultural landscape

One of the leading wineries of the Wachau region, Weingut Prager is a family-run operation based on equal parts of tradition and innovation. Using the expertise accumulated over generations and the potential of modern innovations, Toni Bodenstein works to explore the secrets of the local terroir. In a unique landscape, he makes one-of-a-kind wines that mirror the singular qualities of the vineyards from which they come.

Riesling, with some justification regarded as the king of white wines, is held in particular regard at Weingut Prager. With late-ripening grapes and exacting demands on soil and climate, it is a highly individual variety. Riesling wines are delicate and elegant, with mineral flavours and a white peach fragrance.
